ORDER OF COMMITMENT FOR
MENTAL EXAMINATION AND EVALUATION

All pretrial motions in this case have been referred to the undersigned pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b) for disposition or report and recommendation regarding disposition by the District Court as may be appropriate. On September 19, 2007, the parties appeared before the Court for an initial appearance on a bench warrant issued by District Judge Leon Jordan on September 18, 2007. Assistant United States Attorney Brown low Marsh appeared on behalf of the government. Attorney James Webster appeared on behalf of the defendant, who was also present.

Defense counsel made an oral motion for mental evaluation of the Defendant Stephens, voicing concern regarding the defendant's mental capacity to stand trial and to assist counsel. On behalf of the government, Attorney Marsh stated that the government did not oppose the defendant's motion.

After carefully considering the defendant's oral motion for mental evaluation, as well as noting that the government does not object, the Court finds that the defendant's oral motion is well taken and should be GRANTED. Accordingly, the Court finds that the defendant should undergo a competency evaluation under 18 U.S.C. § 4241.

The defendant Stephens had a trial date of September 18, 2007, which was changed to a change of plea hearing. The time during which the defendant is undergoing a mental examination is excludable under the Speedy Trial Act. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(A). Additionally, up to ten days of transportation time is excludable under the Act. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(H). Once the defendant returns from his examination, the Court will need to hold a competency hearing, the time for which will also be excludable. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(F). If the defendant is found competent, the parties will need time to prepare for trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(B)(iv). Accordingly, the Court finds that the ends of justice served by the continuance for an evaluation outweigh the best interest of the defendant and the public in a speedy trial. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(8)(A). A new trial date will not be set at this time. A status conference and/or competency hearing is set for December 11, 2007 at 1:30 p.m. before Magistrate Judge C. Clifford Shirley, Jr. The Court further finds, and the parties agreed, that all time between the September 19, 2007 hearing and the December 11, 2007 competency hearing would be fully excludable time under the Speedy Trial Act. See 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(1)(A), -(F), -(H), and -(8)(A)-(B).

It is therefore ORDERED:

1. That defendant is hereby committed to the custody of the Attorney General of the United States or his designated representative for the purposes indicated herein and the United States Marshal is hereby directed to transport the defendant to the nearest suitable psychiatric facility (hospital) for purposes of psychiatric evaluation, pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 4241 and 4242.
